² In accordance with clause 8.1. of the COSAC Rules of Procedure “The Committee for Union Affairs of the Presidency Parliament shall hold the Presidency of COSAC during that Presidency”.

³ In accordance with clause 2.5 of the COSAC Rules of Procedure the Presidential troika of COSAC consists of the delegations of the national Parliaments of the Presidency, the preceding Presidency, the following Presidency, and the European Parliament. Furthermore, section 9.1 of the COSAC Rules of Procedure provides that the COSAC Secretariat is composed of officials from the Parliaments of the Presidential troika

⁴ In accordance with the Guidelines (rules of procedure) of the Conference of Speakers of the EU Parliaments (EUSC), the Parliament of the Member State holding the Presidency of the Council of the European Union in the second half of a calendar year will normally hold the Speakers’ Conference Presidency in the first half of the following calendar year (Article 3(2)). The Presidency of the Conference starts from the end of the previous meeting (Article 3(5)).

⁵ Article 4(1) of the IPEX Guidelines of 2023 (just like in the previous IPEX Guidelines of 2015) provides that the Board includes ex officio members representing the national parliaments holding the previous, current and upcoming Presidency of the Conference of Speakers of the EU Parliaments, (i.e. presidential troika of the Speakers’ Conference), the national Parliament of the member state holding the Presidency of the Council of the European Union during the first semester of the year in which the Board takes office and the European Parliament.
